

I am not your
SWEETHEART.

About Face

Rethink what you think.

“I understand that working in the shipyard is a man’s industry, but it’s a woman’s industry as well. I’ve heard everything degrading you can think of over the years—‘baby,’ ‘sweetheart,’ ‘baby girl.’

I want you to talk to me the same way you talk to your mom because I’m a woman. I want you to give me the opportunity just like you give the opportunity to a guy.”
