Propellers Installed on Ford

Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS) recently added significant weight to Gerald R. Ford (CVN 78) on Oct. 3 with the installation of four 30-ton bronze propellers. At 21 feet in diameter, each propeller spins to push the aircraft carrier through the water.

“Installation of the propellers culminates more than 10 months of focused work by numerous trades in support of installing the underwater shafting,” said Rolf Bartschi, vice president, CVN 78 Carrier Construction. “The configuration of the blades, the weight of the propellers and the extremely tight tolerances required make this a challenging installation. I commend the rigging and machinery installation mechanics for a job well done.”

Ford’s primary hull structure reached 100 percent structural completion in May, bringing more than three years of structural erection work to a close.

NNS to Recognize October as Quality Month

National Quality Month reinforces the critical role of quality not just at Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS), but in all areas of service and manufacturing. Initiated by the American Society of Quality in 1984, October became National Quality month with a joint resolution by Congress and a proclamation by President Ronald Reagan. Throughout the month of October several NNS employees will be highlighted in Currents answering the question: “What first-time quality means to me.”

“We typically measure our quality by inspection and oversight at the production end of the value stream,” said Ron Murray, vice president of Quality and Process Excellence. “However, the quality of the complex ships we deliver is dependent on our quality all along the value stream. The quality of the design, the material, the plan, our processes, our training and our management team are absolutely critical to the success of our craft workers. October being quality month gives us the opportunity to pause and recognize that we all are responsible for quality.”
859 Days Accident Free

On Oct. 2, Pipe Shop and X36 leadership recognized the Pipe Shop’s Lifting and Handling team for their role in helping Component Fabrication and Assembly (CFA) receive the award for best crane safety at Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS). The team is responsible for completing lifts on Virginia-class submarines, Ford-class carriers and Nimitz-class overhauls. In honor of the team’s accident free record, each member was presented with a Top Gun Crane team denim shirt.

“You have been selected by your general foreman as the significant contributors to the Pipe Shop’s Lifting and Handling team,” Phil Gross, Lifting and Handling Quality manager, told the team. “You have maintained a perfect safety record this year and last year and are setting the standard.”

Robert Chappell, X36 director, was also in attendance at the event. “Going more than two years without an accident is monumental,” Chappell said. “Everyone on this team has played a key role in this success. I couldn’t be happier with this team’s safety record and performance – you are a model for us all.”

Evanglish “JB” Barnes (X42) is a member of the team and believes several contributing factors are responsible for the team’s success. “We look out for each other, we are patient and we remain alert,” said Barnes, who recently celebrated his 10 year anniversary with NNS. “We do this every day and for every lift.”

VCS to Present Quality Craftsman Awards in Honor of Quality Month

In honor of Quality Month, the Virginia-Class Submarine (VCS) Program will recognize craftsmen who demonstrate characteristics of first-time quality in their daily work.

Each week in October, VCS will select one of the nominations for the Quality Craftsman Award. At the end of the month one of the weekly winners will be selected as the Quality Craftsman of the Month.

The Program encourages VCS shipbuilders to nominate their peers who fit the criteria. Recommendations should be given to their foreman or supervisor and they will submit a nomination to Steve DeBusk (K62).

CVN 72 RCOH Team Hosts Ice Cream Social to Raise Awareness About the OFI Program

USS Abraham Lincoln’s (CVN 72) Refueling and Complex Overhaul (RCOH) team is taking actions to raise awareness of the company’s Opportunity for Improvement (OFI) Program. The team recently held an ice cream social at the Consolidated Trades Building (CTB) to help spread the word.

“Ice cream was offered to each shipbuilder who provided an idea,” said Emily Carlton (X70). “We collected 55 ideas, which made the event a success. The RCOH program is currently looking into making plans for a similar event in November. Hopefully, at that time the word will have spread and we will be able to add to the ideas that were captured in September.”
Security and Emergency Management (O15) hosted an appreciation luncheon Aug. 19 for more than 240 Department Security Representatives (DSRs), Information System Security Officers (ISSOs), and employees that played an integral role in Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS) obtaining a “Commendable” rating on the Defense Security Service (DSS) Assessment held the week of April 22, 2013. During the event, Derek Jenkins, director of Security and Emergency Management, praised the group for supporting and participating in the assessment and for the work they do on a daily basis to safeguard classified information and materials. Twenty NNS employees received “Special Recognition” for outstanding performance of security responsibilities as noted by DSS during the assessment out brief.

17th Annual Trades Day Event

More than 2,700 shipbuilders attended the 17th Annual Trades Day event hosted by the Operations Division on Saturday, Oct. 5. Attendees enjoyed socializing with colleagues, a variety of children’s activities, food and the Builder’s Homecoming football game.

John Babb, X72 foreman, CVN 65 Inactivation team, and his wife Kim Babb have attended all 17 Trades Day events. “We enjoy the friendship and activities,” said John Babb. Kim Babb added that she enjoys putting faces to the names of people her husband works with and talks about all the time.

Laura Askew, O14 mail carrier, agreed that she enjoys socializing with fellow shipbuilders. “It’s always fun and exciting to meet the families of the people I work with everyday.”

Jovonne Smith, X36 tool room clerk, attended with her five children and niece and nephew. “I wanted to come for the food and have fun with my kids,” said Smith. “My son plays football and he wanted to see the game.”

The Builders won the football game against Coppin State 39-24.

Warehouse and Tugboat Shipbuilders Wear Pink Lanyards to Spread Awareness About Breast Cancer

Material Handling (O53) shipbuilders were featured in the June 2013 edition of Yardlines for their team engagement. Tugboat shipbuilders who read the story inquired about the team’s pink lanyards that they wear each day to spread awareness about breast cancer and wanted to know where they could get pink lanyards to show their support for the cause as well. The two teams had the opportunity to meet during lunch in July.
