

Jennifer Boykin

President, Newport News Shipbuilding

- Jennifer Boykin leads the successful operations of Newport News Shipbuilding, which was founded in 1886, has approximately $4 billion in revenues, and is the largest industrial employer in the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- She has responsibility for more than 20,000 shipbuilders who design, build and maintain the most complex ships in the world: nuclear-powered aircraft carriers and nuclear-powered submarines.
- Jennifer earned her bachelor's degree from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and her master's from The George Washington University.
- She joined the shipyard in 1987 and is committed to honoring the shipyard's long and distinguished heritage while building an innovative future.
- In the community, she is committed to workforce development and is a strong advocate for STEM programs.
- She's from St. Louis and is an avid Cardinals baseball fan.
- Please welcome the 20th president of Newport News Shipbuilding and the first woman to serve in this position – Jennifer Boykin.

